Campers, come get your hands dirty on an Archaeological Dig on the historic property where President James Garfield grew up. Explore a replica of the log cabin where young Jimmy lived. Campers will learn about Native Americans and what life was like for the 19th century president and also native Americans. Campers will practice archaeology, cook like a pioneer, enjoy arts and crafts, scavenger hunts, nature, games and much more!

Campers will need to bring knee pads or an old towel, wear tennis shoes, and play clothing.
